The following have been proposed police reforms expressed by Commissioner Hardesty.

I Don Baack move the Hillsdale Neighborhood Assn write a letter of support of these actions to all members of the Portland City Council and City Auditor and we write a letter to the President of SW Neighborhoods Inc requesting the SW Neighborhood Board write a letter of support for these police changes and send it to the same addressees.

The actions include:

- Truly independent police accountability boards with subpoena authority so police aren't reviewing their own actions.
- Reviews of fatal police shootings and deaths in police custody by a special prosecutor or the Oregon attorney general's office. County prosecutors, who rely on police for their criminal prosecutions, would no longer be responsible for the reviews.
- Revamped basic police training to ensure a community-police partnership is embedded in all courses from the moment a recruit is sworn in.
- Police discipline that sticks and isn't overturned by a state arbitrator.
- Limits to qualified immunity protection that often shields police officers from liability in civil cases.
- A national police misconduct database to track problem officers so they don't leave one agency to work at another.
